

JESUS TALKING TO HIS BRIDE.

(Songs of Solomon, 4, 7.)
Come, sing to me, My own sweet bride.
Surely, I love thee with My own blood.
To save thy soul from death.

I love to hear thy voice in song, And know thy heart is glad.
You need not need to fear, My love;
No cause for feeling sad.

Surely, I'll take good care of thee; Supply thy every need;
Thou shalt not want for anything For which thy soul doth grieve.

Thy every breath of prayer, I hear; Thy every want is known.
Love, My love, My fairest one, I'll fill thee to My throne.

Seated at My right hand in power, In majesty and might,
Above the angels choirs to be Most precious in My sight.

Thy toll on earth will soon be o'er—I'm coming soon for thee.
Look up and sing, My precious one;
My glory thou shalt see.

I have a home prepared for thee;
A many-manioned house;
It's fitted up in heavenly style For those who, thou dost come.

Thou shalt not have to say to me 'I sick—I'll cherish thee, my bride.
All hail shall stand amazed at thee When seated by my side.

Dark Shalmanai, men call thee now, And proudly pass thee by;
But surely, in a little while I'll bear thee through the sky.

Through angel throngs I'll hear thee up—To dazzling heights, will go.
Thy lips forgot; thy body changed—Goodbye to things below.

Be faithful, dear one, do not let Thy mind on earthly dross; Be dead to transient joys below, And gladly leave thy cross.

I hung upon the cross for thee, I shed and languished there;
I left My Father's house for thee Thy lot on earth to share.

Thou knowest how men scourged My back And railed and spat on Me;
And when I hung upon the cross, They mocked My agony.

I passed through all the pains of hell—My Father hid His face; I gladly bore My sin away,
And took the sinners' place.

Thy toll for Me I'll never forget—I love thy daily face;
Thou hast seen my crown, I'll shortly crown, And give thee in Heaven a place.

To friends of God restored, My bride shall ever be;
Bathed 'neath anamorphose bowers, Gazing on glass and sea.

Walking the streets of gold with life, Far from a world of sin, Secure, content and satisfied, With Christ, thy Lord, shalt live.

No evil now, shall touch thee more;
No sense of loneliness.
My presence shall be yours for aye To gladden, cheer, and bless.

And when the Kingdom I resign Into My Father's care, My glory, love and tenderness Thou shalt forever share.—H. O. Beck.

IN A DIVINE TRANCE.

We know that some look with disfavor Upon falling under the power, and many regard with suspicion visions and revelations.
But how can any, who really believe in the Bible, doubt the genuineness of that which fully bears the marks of being of God, and which is also in fulfillment of the prophecies and promises of His Word?

"And the Spirit of God came upon Hize."
"He hath said, which heard the word of God, which saw the vision of the Almighty, falling into a trance, but having his eyes open."

"Therefore I was left alone, and saw this great vision, and there remained no strength in me," and "I became dumb." "Then I opened my mouth, and spoke." (Dan. 10:8, 10, 11, 12.)

At Joppa the Spirit-baptized Peter laid into a divine trance, in which he saw the vision, and heard the voice, that swept away his Jewish prejudices and opened his vision to the Gentiles. (Acts 10:9-20.)

In 1 Cor. 13:1, Paul says: "I will come to visions and revelations of the Lord." We also learn that when the Spirit shall begin to be poured upon all flesh in the last days, they shall prophesy and see visions."

If you reject the real in these days, what will you do with that of the same kind recorded in the Scriptures? Will you then allow the Bible, because of unbelief in these mighty and marvelous workings of the Spirit in the present? It looks very much, as if it be contrived, this is what you will have to do, or accept what this same God of the Bible is surely doing today.

—The New Aeon.

Other inspired records of divine trances are given in the Scriptures. Paul at his conversion fell under the power of God, and he says: "Suddenly there shone from heaven a great light round about me. And I fell into the ground and heard a voice saying unto me, Saul, Saul, why persecutest thou me? And I answered, 'Who art thou, Lord?' And He said unto me: 'I am Jesus of Nazareth, whom thou persecutest.'" Acts 22:6-8.

Paul testified to being in a divine trance, in 11 Cor. 12:2-4. "I have a man in Christ above fourteen years ago (whether in the body I cannot tell, whether out of the body I cannot tell, God knoweth) such as one caught up to the third heaven and heard unspeakable words which it is not lawful for a man to utter." John also in Revelations says: "I was in the Spirit on the Lord's day." He heard Jesus speaking and says: "When I saw Him, I fell at His feet dead. Just as so many in this mission have seen a vision of Jesus and have fallen at His feet as dead."

UNLOCKED BY PRAYER.

God has not given you, through the power of the Holy Ghost, that which is no language, but has no meaning. You need not hunt around for somebody to interpret.
That is as bad as Saul going to the Witch of Endor. People may tell you that it is some kind of gibberish you are speaking, but you did it means something. God knows the Holy Ghost gave it to you. "Let him that speaks in an unknown tongue pray that he may interpret." The interpretation is unlocked by prayer. I am glad the Lord has unlocked the tongue. It is not, anyone could unlock the mysteries of Christ.

In the Corinthian church, the tongues sounded so sweet they all wanted to speak.
In fact, the Lord had unlocked the tongue for them. In 1 Cor. 14, Paul was trying to teach government and wisdom to the church. They were very zealous and the whole company of baptized believers wanted to talk in tongues at once.
They would perhaps get to singing and very happy, and then all go off in tongues, just as we have, and the one that had to get the baptism and wanted it, and the unconverted and uncommitted ones were left out. Paul wanted them to get in order where they could get souls saved, sanctified and baptized with the Holy Ghost.

The prophet is subject to the prophet.
We have the real gift of tongues and you have the Lord has not given you the gift of prophecy to interpret, and you find at all your person is in tongues, you may say just sit down. The prophet is subject to the prophet. The Scripture says to be silent, just sit down.

The Bible shows us the great need of order in prophesying in the plain tongue. The Lord will give you the interpretation of prayer in tongues as well as of speaking. The one who speaks in the tongue is of more account to the assembly than the one in speaking in the unknown tongue, except he interpret.

Paul said: "I would that ye all spoke with tongues, but rather that ye prophesied." He wants us to go forward and prophesied. He says, "I would that ye all spoke in tongues, but rather that ye prophesied."
He wants us to go forward and prophesied. He says, "I would that ye all spoke in tongues, but rather that ye prophesied."

He wants us to go forward and prophesied. He says, "I would that ye all spoke in tongues, but rather that ye prophesied."
He wants us to go forward and prophesied. He says, "I would that ye all spoke in tongues, but rather that ye prophesied."

A WITNESS IN MICHIGAN.

188 Paw Paw Ave., Benton Harbor, Mich.
God has saved me from a life of sin and filled me not half filled but utterly filled with His Holy Spirit. Hallelujah!

There is not an hour in the day that I cannot feel Him manifesting in my flesh. I feel His power through my being just now.

I was working in Boyce, a small town in the northern part of this state, driving a team for a business man. One night, after leaving care of the team, a saved young man and myself decided to sleep in the barn.

At that time, I had not been at a place of worship for months, nor had anyone spoken to me about my soul. But I knew that I must do to be saved. Shortly after retiring, something settled down upon me, and I realized I was convicted for sin.

I groined under the burden and called on God for mercy. Upon waking Lee (the young man with me) to pray for me, he was surprised and thought I was joking. But when he found I meant business, he joined in with me, and I got my case before the Lord and continued to pray for mercy. For half or three quarters of an hour, I went through something that only those who have had deep conviction for sin can realize. But, glory to His name, He fulfilled His Word in me. "In the day when ye seek Me with a whole heart, I will be found of you, and I will be merciful to him that seeketh Me."

I started out for God, but more than once I had a struggle with that carnal nature, but while on the wagon, I would have to leave for the woods or the cornfield to seek for Him. O how He has blessed and praise Him for His mercy to me.

After being saved and sanctified by the Blood of Jesus, I still saw my need of the fire and power of God to come up to the fullness of His name. He fulfilled His Word in me. "I stand with you, but God was merciful to the saints here in Benton Harbor and sent Sister Robinson to us from Los Angeles. I did not accept her teaching at first, but of course God brought me round, and in a few days I was seeking my Pentecost and expecting tongues for an evidence. Some say that we could not expect tongues, but, glory to God, let us seek them as we seek life, and as we seek as possible. To me it was a witness that I had received the baptism, just as it was to Peter when at the house of Cornelius. He perceived that the Gentiles received the Holy Ghost, because they spoke with tongues and magnified God.

A few days after I began to seek the Lord, He led Sister Robinson to her hands on me, that I might receive the baptism with the Holy Ghost and fire. And one week from the time she came, I received the baptism and spoke in a number of languages. The first I felt was my love beginning to ache, and soon starting to chatter. This continued for about half an hour and then I broke out in a number of different languages. A few nights later in meeting, I prayed and preached for about an hour in clear distinct languages, as plainly and in as natural a tone of voice as anyone would speak. Afterwards kneeling down beside a bench to thank God for His giving the power of tongues to me, the Spirit again took control of it and prayed in the unknown tongue. It was surprised at the prayer that came from my mouth, I prayed for everyone personally that was in the room. And it seemed to be just what they needed.

When I prophesied to Jesus coming to said: "He shall baptize you with the Holy Ghost and fire." It seems that I did not teach much of the fire at first. But of course everyone has more or less of a fire. I have seen many people who have about a week now, I have been so filled that I cannot speak. I am glad I would be summed.—George H. Taylor.

FROM OTHER PENTECOSTAL PAPERS.

Two Pentecostal workers in Cleveland have been going about visiting the homes.
When they come to a family where the gauge they do not understand, they know they may preach Jesus to them. God answers prayers and they rise and at once preach the Gospel to the family in their own language.

A sister in answer to prayer was enabled to speak to a dying Italian woman in a ho-pital in Allegheny, Pa., and to pray with her in her own language. She was converted and died in the Lord.

A young man, felt impressed to speak as an Arabian woman, and he obeyed. He found he was speaking her native tongue, and he was able to preach the Gospel to her in her own language.

Two young men, Pentecostals who had received their Pentecost, were in a meeting, and the Spirit came upon them, and they began speaking in tongues together. They have both been called as missionaries to Africa, and they are going to Africa.

but refused to do so, and felt he had grieved the Spirit and confessed and repented, and promised to obey in the future. He was soon permitted to have the test applied again, and he obeyed and found he was able to speak the Italian language, and opened up a conversation about Christianity, to the foreigner.

In Sister Ladd's Mission, Des Moines, Ia., numbers have received the Pentecost and Bible evidence. Some are being saved and sanctified. About 15 young people have called to foreign fields.

If you have any idol in your soul save Jesus only, there is no room there; but if He is there, there is room and power.

Asa's Mission is not the head of the movement; we are a body of millions with Christ as the Head. All glory to God.

Men may fight against this Gospel, but it will stand, for it is founded on Christ the Rock and His eternal Word.

God wants men and women that will protect the Gospel square from the shenanigan.

We are not to compromise with sin. We are not to get together that people can be with just a little sin in their hearts; but they must be pure and holy lives from sin, from cheating, huckstering, and the catalogue of sins, and God will always be with you.

"Glory to God for the blood sanctified." I was healed before I got here. I felt the prayers of the saints as God healed me. As I took the handkerchief out of the letter, it seemed that the Lord poured out a blessing on me. We have two men here from Dunn, for Pentecost tonight. Glory to Jesus.
